WORLD'S FAIR MATTERS.

Some months ago Congress appointed a committee to look into the manner in which the business of the World's Fair is being conducted. Congressman Roswell P. Flower, who was a member of the committee, spent a week in Chicago in the performance of his duties, and on his return to New York said to a reporter that the National Commission was altogether too large and too costly a body to be of any use to the projectors of the Fair. The commission now numbers 106 men and 115 women. Mr. Flower is reported as saying: "I am opposed to the idea of permitting such a body to hamper the Chicago Board of Fair Directors with recommendations and diverse views, and draw big salaries from the Congressional appropriation of $1,500,000, which should be applied to the legitimate purposes of the Fair. I believe that it would be better for Chicago if the National Commission should appoint a subcommittee of five good men, to supervise the erection of the buildings and work generally of the local board. This would save many salaries and Chicago would be enabled to go on with the preparations for the Fair in her own way and with her own money."

There are probably a good many people of Mr. Flower's way of thinking. Of the possible use are 106 men and 115 women as aids, advisers, and supervisors of the Board of Directors, who really have the work and the responsibility on their shoulders? "Director General Davis appears upon later intelligence to look upon the National Commission rather than to the local directory for authority. It is determined that the Director General shall appoint the chiefs of bureaus, and that any differences which may arise shall be referred to a Board of Joint Control, composed of an equal number of men from the National Commissioners and from the local directory. There does not seem to be any hint to the management, notwithstanding the 221 persons who constitute the National Commission. The first thing done was to vote the President, Secretary and Vice-Chairman of the Executive Committee salaries ranging from $12,000 to the first to $8,000 for the last. This is a rather high price to pay for instruction.

The President's message strikes the right key regarding the case of Utah. He notes carefully that President Woodruff does not renounce the practice of polygamy, but simply refrains from teaching it and advises against its practice because the law forbids it; therefore, he holds that the Mormons should be treated as people who believe polygamy right, but lack the power to make it lawful. Under Statehood Utah could make polygamy legal, as well as, from the Mormon standpoint morally, right. The President evidently believes in waiting until polygamy has died out as a belief and sentiment, before trusting the Mormons with Statehood.

It is now proposed to form a Syrian colony in Pennsylvania. It will be devoted to Oriental manufactures. The Syrians have been noted for centuries for their skill in handicraft and their presence may give an impetus to American manufactures in certain textile and decorative lines. It is also possible that some of these people might give Californians points regarding the culture and preparation of figs, dates, etc.

A Mail and Express Albany special gives the rumor of a peace patched up between Cleveland and Hill. If it is true, Hill will be elected United States Senator, leaving the track clear for Cleveland in 1892, and Roswell P. Flower will be the Democratic nominee for Governor in 1891. Colonel Daniel Lamont is credited with engineering the truce.

The coinage during the year was the largest in the history of the country, amounting to $60,254,436. The mines of the United States yielded during 1889 $32,800,000 gold and $64,646,000 silver. The estimated stock of gold and silver in the United States up to November 1st last was $1,190,236,000.

The Gazette still complains of Senator Jones' residence, but heartily approves the appointment of a Foreman for the State Printing Office from Ogden. The JOURNAL believes Mr. Eckley should have appointed some one of the printers in the State.

Buck Kilgore, the Congressman from Texas appeared in his seat Monday wearing a very heavy pair of new cowhide boots literally shining with bear's grease. It is evident that he is prepared to kick in the door again.

The people of Seattle are anxious to get a sugar refinery started in that city. They can have this by raising $200,000, while parties in the Hawaiian islands will raise $300,000.

It is reported that the silver men in Congress have united with the Democrats to defeat legislation upon the Force bill until a Free Coinage measure is passed.

John O. Kemble, an editor on the Seattle Journal, died in the hospital at that city Friday. His father, E. O. Kemble, was the founder of the Alta California.

Charles H. Livingston, President and Manager of the San Francisco Alta Company, is dead.

Dr. Mary Walker's condition is much improved.

PARNELL SPEAKS.

Fighting to Retain His Position—A Lively Meeting of the Nationalists. The following is the text of the speech delivered in London Monday by Parnell to his constituents: "The time has come when I must speak out against the opposition within our party which has been created by Gladstone's letter. The men whose ability has been most conspicuously exercised against me—Healey and Sexton—will have to bear the responsibility. Healey has been trained in this warfare. Who telegraphed to him in America to come back? Who gave him his first chance to enter public life and got him a seat in Parliament, prompting, rebuking and restraining him? That Healey is there to-day to destroy me is owing to myself. Mr. Healey reminds me of his services. He has not been slow to remind me of them at any time. I understand that he attended the recent meeting in Dublin calling on me not to retire. Who asked him to do so? Who asked McCarthy to travel to Dublin and say that he would be able to give information which would throw a different complexion on hidden events? Where was Sexton at the same meeting? Where were you all? Why did you encourage me to maintain the leadership in the face of the world if you were not going to stand by me? Why did my officers encourage me to take a position on the bridge if they were going to act as traitors, and hand me over to another commander-in-chief? I did not ask them for the certificate of character given at the Dublin meeting. Our position is awkward, but the whole blame for certain phases of this position does not rest with me. A leader-killer, Barry, has been put to stab me, as he stabbed that old lion, Isaac Butt, in days gone by. What is now to be said about the request for my temporary retirement. Sexton at a recent meeting here told me that I could resume the leadership and that the leaders were with me. Ten minutes afterward he astonished me by saying that he believed I would reject the leadership."

Referring to the Hawarden proposals Parnell said Gladstone told him that none of them was final. "For me," said Parnell, "it was a question of drafting a bill. It was a question of weak judgment on the part of an English politician. It was a question of dealing with a garrulous old gentleman who monopolized the conversation and with whom, as everybody who knows him knows, it is difficult to get in a word edgewise. Before you vote for my deposition be sure you are getting value for it. On Saturday we were all agreed that we would not have this Gladstone bill. Not a man here has said a word in favor of it. Are you sure you will be able to get anything better? If Healey, or Sexton, or McCarthy sees a way clear to get anything better, for God's sake let them get in. I won't stand in their way. On Saturday I made this proposition to McCarthy: Let Gladstone, Harcourt and Morley give him letters declaring that in the event of the return of the Liberals to power a home rule bill will be proposed by which control of the Irish constabulary will be vested in an Irish executive, who will be responsible to an Irish Parliament, employed to settle the land question. McCarthy went to Gladstone with these proposals with my assurance that if these concessions were made I would retire from public life. Gladstone has replied that he will hold no communication with me as leader of the party.

McCarthy (interrupting)—No. Parnell—He is perfectly welcome. The same propositions were placed before Harcourt, who replied that under no circumstances will he give any promise whatever, now or hereafter, to any Irish party. Remember, Harcourt will be your leader when Gladstone dies.

Condon—Not our leader. Parnell—It will not be Morley. You will not deny that this great man Harcourt, whose chair you are going to put on your backs, is the reversion of the Liberal leadership. The same man has declared that his limits to home rule are in Chamberlain's scheme of local government. If Harcourt ever comes into power he will give you local government with plenty of coercion. I know what Mr. Harcourt will do and what Gladstone and Morley will do. If I am to leave you to-night I should like to leave you in security. It is not as unfair thing for me to ask to see you within sight of the promised land, or that I should come with you, having come so far, until you are absolutely sure of Ireland I can go no further."

An enthusiastic outburst of cheering followed Parnell's remarks.

A Silver Pool.

In the House Monday Representative Dooley, of Missouri, offered for reference a resolution reciting that it is alleged that twelve Senators and fifteen Representatives, pending the passage of the "Silver bill" were admitted to partnership in various "Silver pools" by which they realized $100,000 profits by the advance in the price of silver after the passage of the act, and directing the Committee on Coinage, Weights and Measures to inquire into all the facts and circumstances connected with the alleged purchase and sale of silver. The committee shall have leave to send for papers and persons and to report at any time.

The Commercial Bulletin's Washington special says: Senator Teller, of Colorado, is here with a free coinage bill in his pocket and the declaration that free coinage of silver will be voted by Congress, even if it has to be proposed as a rider to one of the regular appropriation bills. He thinks strong efforts will be made to get a vote for free coinage in the House. It is evident from his declarations and those of other free-coinage workers that they do not propose to bide their time until the next Congress.

A New Apportionment. In the House Franks, of Missouri, has introduced for reference a bill making a Congressional apportionment under the eleventh census. It provides that after the 3d of March, 1893, the House of Representatives shall be composed of 356 members, as follows: Alabama 9, Arkansas 6, California 7, Colorado 2, Connecticut 4, Delaware 1, Florida 2, Georgia 11, Idaho 1, Illinois 22, Indiana 13, Iowa 11, Kansas 8, Kentucky 11, Louisiana 6, Maine 4, Maryland 6, Massachusetts 13, Michigan 12, Minnesota 7, Mississippi 7, Missouri 15, Montana 1, Nebraska 6, Nevada 1, New Hampshire 2, New Jersey 7, New York 34, North Carolina 9, North Dakota 2, Ohio 21, Oregon 2, Pennsylvania 30, Rhode Island 2, South Carolina 7, South Dakota 2, Tennessee 10, Texas 13, Vermont 2, Virginia 10, Washington 2, West Virginia 4, Wisconsin 10, Wyoming 1.

Representatives from New York have already brought in bills for a recount of the city. It would be a fine thing for Tammany to have its apportionment of spoils based on a count twelve months later than that of the rest of the country.

So confident are the manufacturers of Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy in their ability to cure Catarrh in the Head, nose, throat, ears, eyes, etc., that they offer in good faith, the above reward, for a case which they cannot cure. Symptoms of Catarrh in the Head, nose, throat, ears, eyes, etc., are: Headache, obstruction of nose, discharge of mucus, ringing in ears, deafness, expectoration of offensive matter, breath offensive, smell and taste impaired, and general debility. Four feet of snow at the Summit.
Pay your JOURNAL bill and be happy.
Charley Chapman returned to the Bay yesterday.

For window glass, all sizes, go to Lange & Schmitt.
All the sawmills on the Truckee have closed down.

Shoemaker & Ruth have sold out to J. B. McCollough.

Hon. Frances G. Newlands has returned from San Francisco.

There will be no lack of mud on the streets for a few days.

The JOURNAL to-day publishes the official returns of the State election.

Miss Annie Frey leaves this morning for Genoa where she will remain on a short visit.

Mrs. D. Church will leave this morning for Oakland where she goes on a visit to relatives.

On and after Monday, Dec. 8th, the N. C. & O. mail will close at 8:30 a. m. and arrive at 3:40 p. m.

Aspirants for positions in the Legislature this Winter are as plentiful as bedbugs in a pioneer's cabin.

The Montana papers say miners are everywhere in demand in the camps of that State at $3.50 a day.

Mrs. Wells Drury, who has been visiting her parents here, returned to San Francisco yesterday afternoon.

William Coppersmith of Honey Lake Valley this year raised 460 bushels of barley on four acres of ground.

State Printer-elect Enkley has selected H. C. Dana, formerly of Carson, but now of Ogden, Utah, as his foreman.

Mrs. Pierce Evans, of Fairhaven, Washington, and her mother, Mrs. Tucker, of Oakland, are revisiting Reno friends.

Go to Lange & Schmitt for heating stoves, cook stoves, ranges and house furnishing goods. Largest variety and best values.

Gen. Irish is entitled to all the credit for this unexpected storm. He guessed it nearer right than any of the other weather sharps.

C. R. Glass, the civil engineer who has been connected with the U. S. Hydrographic survey and who has been very ill with typhoid fever, is now convalescing.

Sir Thomas Hesketh came up from San Francisco yesterday morning with Hon. Francis G. Newlands, and spent the day in Reno. He leaves with Mr. Newlands this morning for the East.

Rev. T. V. Fisher has been granted a three months leave of absence by the Methodist Church on account of his health. He will go to Los Angeles for a few weeks after which he will visit New York.

George Francis Train has challenged Sucoi, the Italian faster, to fast one hundred days. He proposes not to take mineral waters or any elixir, but only to open the window at times and breathe a little air. Sucoi has the proposition under consideration.

The O. P. snowplows will soon have a chance for exercise. It is to be hoped that during the year some more effective machine than the Cyclone plow has been constructed, otherwise if the Winter prove a hard one some of the experiences of last year may be repeated.

Walter Frey will return to his home in Genoa to-day. He is the young man employed by W. S. Bailey who, while packing a dressed hog upon his shoulder at the butcher shop some weeks ago, fell and received a cut in the leg from a broken bone in the carcass. A few days later inflammation set in and it was thought at one time he would have to lose the limb. He is at present almost entirely recovered.

Will Visit Reno.

On Friday next (Dec. 5), a highly educated, accomplished and successful physician, Dr. Base, will visit our town. The doctor's experience is probably more varied and greater than any other specialist on the coast. Educated in the large hospitals of Europe he afterwards entered the United States navy; has made three trips around the world and visited many of the large hospitals. He also served under General Crook in the late Indian campaign. We advise every man or woman with an obscure, obstinate or private disease to seek his advice at once. Office, Palace Hotel. The doctor's terms are most reasonable.

Snow.

The first snow of the season was coming down steadily in big flakes yesterday morning when the town awoke. It continued falling until after 9 o'clock, when the sun broke through the clouds. It stormed somewhat in the mountains during the day and advices from California state that a general rain has taken place all along the coast.

The storm set in again during the afternoon, and has continued ever since, up the river and on the mountains it is a regular old highbinder.

A Business Directory.

The walls of the Reno Postoffice are now adorned with an immense business directory of the town, the work of W. L. Coffin's paintshop, the artist being Mr. Whitted. In addition to the business firms is a church, school and secret society directory, and a new railroad time table bulletin board. The work is artistic and adds much to the looks of the room.

Good People.

The Cleveland Minstrels is an organization of great strength and popularity, and a company of unusual merit, containing as it does in its roster the names of some of the greatest minstrel celebrities.

The young manager, Cleveland, can be justly titled the Napoleon of all minstrel managers. He has put together this season a minstrel company of such acknowledged merit that his fame has extended broadcast throughout the land, and the name of Cleveland is now a voucher for all that is great and good in the minstrel world. His success has been phenomenal. He is only 28 years of age and his wealth is estimated at over $100,000, and every penny of it made in three years out of his minstrel enterprises. This is indeed a bright record for a young man.

"Some call it luck," remarked a well-known theatrical man, "but that is sheer nonsense. Will Cleveland has had a hard up-hill fight of it from the start and has had more reverses than any young man in the profession, but the secret of his success has been his plucky perseverance in the face of overwhelming odds, combined with toll and hard work with good judgment and sound business principles thrown in."

During the past two years he has realized the fruit of his early struggles. Last season the company closed the season big winners, which encouraged him this year to put out three companies of equal merit. These companies are universally conceded to be the strongest minstrel organizations ever organized in this country.

The company that plays here is claimed to be the largest and most expensive minstrel company ever seen in this part of the country.

Advice to Mothers.

Are you disturbed at night and broken or your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? If so send at once and get a bottle of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures dysentery and diarrhea, regulates the stomach and bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for Children Teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female nurses and physicians in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle. feb. 21-sw-ly

Placer Mining.

Silver State: J. B. Foltz, who is a man of means and experience in mining enterprises, and who, during the past few months, has possessed himself and others connected with him of twenty-two placer claims in Indian creek valley and Spring valley, came to town yesterday and left this morning for Truckee, for the purpose of purchasing lumber to construct two miles of flume to conduct the water of Indian creek to Spring valley. Mr. Foltz intends to erect extensive hydraulic works. Operations will be commenced at the lower end of Spring valley with the intention of working thoroughly both old and new ground. Indian creek valley will be carefully prospected in the future, and we apprehend that this gentleman will do much to revive placer mining in our county.

Playing Vaquero.

Enterprise: A young society gentleman who purchased one of the Indian ponies recently auctioned off in this city, finds that there are many ups and downs—particularly the latter—in the life of the amateur vaquero and the role of the "Wild Huntsman." He finds the Pinto pony an "amusing" cuss, as the immortal Artemus Ward would say. Thus far no bones have been broken in the irrepressible conflict, but there has been much "ground and lofty tumbling." This development of latent "buck" affords all the young fellows who failed to secure one of the Indian ponies intense satisfaction.

Took a Tumble.

A certain professor at the State University the other day in the Physiology class informed his pupils that he would show them how to breathe. He was seated in a revolving spring bottom office chair. He straightened out, took a long breath, shot his feet out like a catapult and went over backwards where he lay for some time unable to extricate himself. He got up a wiser and a sadder professor, as he had found out that it does not do to practice breathing exercises in that kind of a chair.

A Punching Machine.

Winnemucca Silver State: Frank A. Meuler, the chief blacksmith at Homer Davis' wagonshop, has invented a machine for punching holes in iron plates, for which he can doubtless procure a patent. It is so simple that a child can operate it, and it will punch holes of any size desired in iron plates of any thickness in common use at the rate of sixty holes a minute.

New Year's Ball.

Company C. proposes giving another of their annual balls New Year's eve. That given by them last New Year was one of the most brilliant social events of the season. They intend to outdo themselves this year, and a grand fete may be expected.

Instantly Killed.

Congressman Isaac M. Jordan, of Ohio, accidentally fell down an elevator shaft yesterday morning, at Cincinnati, and was instantly killed.

THE RENO "JOURNAL."

A New and Interesting Episode in Nevada Journalism.

The JOURNAL is under obligations to the local editor of the Virginia Chronicle:

The NEVADA STATE JOURNAL became 20 years old last Saturday. C. C. Powning as its editor and proprietor has made a good journalistic mark, always and invariably standing in for the best interests of Reno and Washoe county. Reno never had or has a better or more honestly true and effective exponent.

But on the 20th anniversary of the JOURNAL's birthday comes the announcement that he has sold the concern, building and all, to E. D. Kelly, the well known and exceedingly able editor of the Winnemucca Silver State, possession to be given on the first of the coming year. A radical change will, of course, ensue, perhaps for the better, but people of Reno and Washoe county consistently have to recognize what Powning has done for their public benefit, whatever the loss may have been to himself and mentally remark: "Well done good and faithful servant, enter thou, etc."

Changed Thumbs.

Carson Tribune: Judge Bigelow tendered his resignation as District Judge. It was accepted and this morning he was appointed Justice of the Supreme Court by Governor Bell, to fill the unexpired term. He immediately qualified.

The Indian Situation.

General Miles, in an interview on the Indian trouble, said he believed danger to be imminent. "The seriousness of the situation," he said, "has not been exaggerated. The disaffection is more widespread than for years. The conspiracy extends to different tribes that are in full sympathy with each other and scattered over a large area of country. The causes of the difficulty are insufficient food supplies, religious delusion and the innate disposition of the savage to go to war. The Indians are better armed now than ever, and their supply of horses is all that could be desired. Every buck has a Winchester rifle and knows how to use it. They can live on cattle, and the numerous horse ranches will furnish them with fresh stock when cold and starvation ruin their mounts. These hostilities have been started into fighting, and they will prefer to die fighting rather than starve peacefully. I hope the problem may be solved without bloodshed, but such a happy ending to the trouble seems improbable."

A special to the Omaha Bee, dated December 3d, from Pine Ridge says "the weather is cold and a driving storm of cutting sleet prevails here." The troops are hugging their camp-fires, and the Indians are freezing in their tepees. To-day Agent Royer will call in all the Indians at the agency and give them a big feed at the stock-house. Should the present storm continue, and particularly should there be a heavy fall of snow, the ponies of the Indians now here, whose hay has been stolen by the hostiles, would die of starvation. At the best, this Winter will inevitably be very tough on the copperfaces who have bowed their heads to Government rule in the present instance, while their rebellious and thieving brothers are living on the fat of the land.

Field's Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary.

Tuesday Mr. and Mrs. Cyrus W. Field celebrated the fiftieth anniversary of their marriage. A message came from England headed by the Duke of Argyll and Mr. Gladstone, and including over sixty names of men distinguished in every walk of life, congratulating Mr. Field upon his achievement of the first ocean cable.

Millie Panhorst Acquitted.

SAN FRANCISCO, Dec. 2.—The trial of Millie Panhorst, the young woman who shot and killed Samuel Goldberg several months ago, was concluded to-day, and the jury rendered a verdict of acquittal. Defendant's counsel made the plea that the shooting was done in self-defense.

The discussion of General Booth's scheme for the relief of the three million paupers of London has led to the curious discovery that an American originated the best feature of his plan. This was Count Ramford, who, about a century ago, applied the same rules to the suppression of poverty and vice in Bavaria, with the result that there has been no begging in that State since then. Ramford was a New England Yankee, and there is small doubt that Booth drew his inspiration from this ingenious New Englander.

Too Considerate for Anything.

"I would like to go out to Luning on your road," said a man at the ticket office of the Third-street depot the other day. "Very well." "What is the fare?" "Two forty." "That is too much. I must economize. I am always willing to be just and liberal, but there is a limit to my finances. I will give you $2." "Can't do it." "I will put the cash right down in your hand." "No use." "Then I can't go. I have to economize." "I'll tell you how you can get out for $1.50," said the agent.

"How?" "Walk." "By George, old man, shake! I'll do it. I'm a thousand times obliged. I thought of it first, but I didn't want to hurt the railroad's feelings, and so kept still. Pat your thigh, and if I can ever help you save a dollar, I'll go a mile to do it."

"Rascals, you are charged with stealing Mr. Brown's lawn-mower. Have you a lawyer?" "No sir; I didn't realize 'nuff on de sale ob dat mower, Judge, to hush counsel."

Peculiar

Many peculiar points make Hood's Sarsaparilla superior to all other medicines. Peculiar in combination, proportion, and preparation of ingredients. Hood's Sarsaparilla possesses the full curative value of the best known remedies of the vegetable kingdom. Peculiar in its strength and economy—Hood's Sarsaparilla is the only medicine of its kind which can truly be said, "One Hundred Doses of Hood's Sarsaparilla require larger doses, and do not produce as good results as Hood's Sarsaparilla in its medicinal merits. Hood's Sarsaparilla accomplishes cures hitherto unknown, and has won for itself the title of "The greatest blood purifier ever discovered." Peculiar in its "goodname" at home,—"there is now more of Hood's Sarsaparilla sold in Lowell, where it is made, than of all other blood purifiers. Peculiar in its phenomenal record of sales, and ever attained such popularity in so short a time, and retained its popularity and confidence among all classes of people so steadfastly. Do not be induced to buy other preparations, but be sure to get the Peculiar Medicine, Hood's Sarsaparilla sold by all druggists. $1.00 per bottle. Prepared only by C. I.
